

In recognition of the private sector's essential role in supporting national activities related to IT education, Optimiza Academy, Optimiza's training and human resources development arm, participated in the CMMI quality certification workshop held by the Information Technology Association of Jordan (INT@J) with the aim of supporting and advancing the development and manufacturing of software.